

In the days when ballast stone was an important feature of some of Australia's most iconic buildings, the daring Steeplejacks played a crucial role in their construction and maintenance. As skilled craftsmen, they completed the most difficult work on the highest towers, oblivious to vertigo, gravity and mortality.

VINTAGE

The 2019 season will be remembered as hot and dry. The heat for the growing season was the second highest on record.

The season started with budburst occurring at around the normal time. Early indications were for at least average crop potential, based on the observed budburst and shoot fruitfulness. Warm and sunny weather during the early part of the flowering period resulted in a rapid transition to fruit set, but rain and cooler weather later in flowering slowed the pollination process and affected fruit set.

The vintage started in late January, with early and late varieties ripening over a short period of time. Good to excellent wine quality has been successful despite the difficult weather conditions.

TASTING NOTES

Despite their daredevil heroics, the old Steeple Jacks had a love for life and our Moscato celebrates their spirit. Confectionary notes with a hint of musk lifesavers dominate this wine. Sweet and petite, with a rush of fizz ensuring a refreshing clean finish.
